➔ Passport to Freedom; A Guide For World Citizens (2010)

By Garry Davis

In 1948, former Broadway actor and WWII B-17 bomber pilot Garry Davis renounced his U.S. nationality as a personal action for world peace and declared himself a World Citizen. Since then the movement he set in motion has spread around the world. World Citizenship has become central to myriad activities promoting global peace through world law. Passport to Freedom shows how World Citizenship can be a powerful moral and political tool that reveals the living reality of One World. But it is more. It is a sourcebook of theory and practice that can empower the individual citizen allied with humanity.

➔ A History of Bombing (2003)

By Sven Lindqvist

More than just a history, it is an overview and interrogation of the cultural and political dimensions and the devastating effects —of war from above. Forming a labyrinth of events that illustrates the genocidal fantasies underlying so much conflict and the devastation wrought by aerial bombing.

➔ The Colonel (2009)

By Mohamoud Dowlatabadi

A novel by the master of Iranian letters that directly engages politics in Iran today. A fearless novel—so powerful it's banned in Iran—tells the stirring story of a tortured people forced to live under successive oppressive regimes. It begins on a pitch black, rainy night, when there's a knock on the Colonel's door.

➔ Talking to My Daughter About the Economy; A Brief History of Capitalism (2019)

By Yanis Varoufakis

'Why is there so much inequality?' Xenia asks her father, the world-famous economist Yanis Varoufakis. Drawing on memories of her childhood and a variety of well-known tales - from Oedipus and Faust to Frankenstein and The Matrix - Varoufakis explains everything you need to know in order to understand why economics is the most important drama of our times.

➔ Libya: Krigens uutholdelige letthet (2019)

By Tormod Heier, Terje Tvedt og Rune Ottosen

En ny bok setter et svært kritisk søkelys på Norges deltagelse i NATO-operasjonen og Norges deltakelse. Norge slapp 588 bomber over landet i 2011, og bidro til regimeendring, med katastrofale følger for hele regionen. Ble vi lurt med i alliansen? Burde vi ta ansvar for konsekvensene? Kunsthall håper at boken vil føre til debatt og oppgjør.

➔ Trygghet for hvem? (2019)

By Åse Møller-Hansen

Heftet 'Om militære klimautslipp, krig som forretningside og veier til fred' er ikke et vitenskapelig dokument, men et innlegg i en fraværende diskusjon om militæret ødeleggelser av klima og miljø og om hva som gir oss sikkerhet. De store militære klimautslippene er et paradoks. Mandatet til nasjonale forsvar er å ivareta nasjonens sikkerhet, men resultatet er ødeleggende for den globale sikkerheten, og dermed for alle lands nasjonale sikkerhet. Heftet koster 80 kr og kan kjøpes hos Kunsthall 3.14
